Office of the Vice Dean for Research
November 2023, Issue #30

Dear Colleagues -

I'm delighted to report that Katie Embree, Amine Mechaal, and I attended the EUniWell Showcase "Becoming a Voice for Well-Being" earlier this month. During that meeting, Amine signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) on behalf of Teachers College with Beatrix Busse, Chief Development Officer and Vice-Rector for Teaching and Studies, European University for Well-Being. As a result of the MOU, TC is now part of EUniWell, which is a consortium of 11 European universities committed to advancing transatlantic collaboration and research as it relates to wellness, broadly defined.

Feel free to reach out to me or Amine if you would like to learn more about partnering with researchers in the EUniWell consortium.

Also remember the upcoming November 20 deadline for Level 2 Project Funds, which support collaborative projects. Please see the information about the award provided below and in the funding opportunity section on the Research@TC website.

Best -

Vice Dean for Research
