Announcements from Offices Supporting Research@TC

OFFICE OF THE VICE DEAN FOR RESEARCH

Grand Writing Support For Faculty in Arts and Humanities. I am pleased to announce the availability of consultations in Grand Writing support to engage in research in the arts, humanities and social sciences with guidance on writing proposals for grants and fellowships. Grand Writing is a service offered by the National Endowment for the Humanities who can help faculty formulate ideas for their grant applications and support them as they work on their proposal. For more information, please email me at jcurtin1@tc.columbia.edu.

Summer Grand Writing Group. I will be running the Third Annual Grand Writing Group this summer. Last year, we had over 20 faculty from across the TC. Our group, which met every two weeks via Zoom, is open to all tenure, transitional faculty, professors of practice, and research professors.

The aim of the group is to create a community of grant writers and to provide faculty with the ongoing opportunities to discuss and receive feedback on their ideas for grant proposals. Participants will be asked to share a proposal (project or idea) of priority you are applying for, the group can work on it. The applications form will be available mid April. Please reach out to me if you have questions: jcurtin1@tc.columbia.edu

THE DIGITAL FUTURES INSTITUTE

DFI's Research Technician Team is pleased to offer a pilot project called Research IT Scholarship Services to help researchers with data collection, analysis and technology workflows within their research projects. Interested faculty can sign up for a consultation here.

INSTITUTIONAL REVIEW BOARD (IRB)

Translation Verification Form

Researchers working with participants who speak languages other than English sometimes need to translate documents into the participants' language. IRB cannot consider documents in languages other than English. TC IRB requires all documents to be submitted in the English language for review purposes. After approval, the IRB will review documents in participant languages only if the language documents are used as a hospital contract or if verification of the translation on the Verification of Translation Accuracy Form, available on Mentor IRB/Documentation.

New PCS (IRB) Department of Education (DOE) Institutional Review Board Approval

TC IRB will use annually, continuously with WCC IOE IRB offices on behalf of researchers wishing to engage WCC DOE sites. Researchers can review WCC IOE IRB's Mentor IRB/Documentation page for the DOE Checklist, further detail at columbia.IRBnet.com to discuss specific questions as needed to WCC IOE IRB.

Funding Opportunities

Internal Funding Opportunities

Internal Faculty Awards and Supports

Faculty Collaborative Funds (Level 1): Planning Grants
Level 1 Collaborative Planning Funds are designed to promote new collaborations among faculty to provide faculty who are currently unfamiliar with each other's work the time and space to explore opportunity to work together and get to know each other in a social setting before launching a larger collaboration. Tenure-track and tenured professors, professors of practice, and research professors are invited to apply. Grants must involve an interdisciplinary collaboration among a minimum of 2 TC faculty members. Grants will be awarded to a maximum of 3 TC faculty members for the group. To read about complete eligibility information and application requirements, please visit the Faculty Collaborative Funds page. Click on the Level 1 Application Form to apply.
Sole-researcher projects: It is recognized that sole-researcher projects are also important to the work of TC faculty. Faculty may also use this page to apply for funding through this mechanism. The application form includes a space for justifying a sole-researcher project. Note that the same budget restrictions and requirements apply to sole-researcher projects.
$20,000 Deadline: April 28, 2023

The Dean's Diversity Research Award and the Fellowship Program for Teaching and Diversity
The Faculty Executive Committee (FEC) Subcommittee on Race, Culture, and Diversity invites faculty to submit proposals for the Dean's Diversity Research Award. The application is due Friday, March 31, 2023. Hard copies will not be accepted. For more information about eligibility and application instructions, please visit the Dean's Diversity Research Award and the Fellowship Program for Teaching and Diversity on the Faculty Resources on Race, Culture and Diversity Pathway. Paper Tiger Group, Sheila Nassor, or Nancy Hirn.

Funds for Large Interdisciplinary Grants
If you are considering applying for a large interdisciplinary grant or a training grant, please contact Jill Curtin, Director of Research Grants Development for discuss possible supports that may be available.

Awards for a Grand Writing Group
Faculty members who are submitting a grant application in a federal agency or a foundation may apply for funds ($750) for an external reviewer to review their application. Please contact Jill Curtin-Davidson for more information.
