THE APPLIED LINGUISTICS & TESOL PROGRAM INVITES YOU TO

The APPLE Lecture Series

Friday, April 11, 2014

Speaker: Professor Alister Cumming
(Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, University of Toronto)

Afternoon Colloquium (For Current Students & Faculty of the AL & TESOL Program)
Topic: Assessing Multiple Dimensions of Adolescent Literacies in a Multicultural Context
When: Friday, April 11, 1:30 pm - 3:00 pm
Where: Zankel Hall (ZB) 408

Evening Lecture (Open to Public)
Topic: Studies of Second Language Writing in Canada: Three Generations
When: Friday, April 11, 4:30 pm - 6:00 pm (An evening reception will follow afterwards.)
Where: Zankel Hall (ZB) 408

Speaker’s Biography:

Alister Cumming is professor in the Centre for Educational Research on Languages and Literacies (CERLL, formerly the Modern Language Centre) at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, University of Toronto, where he has been employed since 1991 following briefer periods at McGill University, the University of British Columbia, Carleton University, and Concordia University. His research and teaching focus on writing in second languages, language assessment, language program evaluation and policies, and research methods.

To request disability-related accommodations contact OASID at oasid@tc.edu, (212) 678-3689, (212) 678-3853 TTY, (646) 755-3144 video phone, as early as possible. By entering the event premises you consent to videotaping, photography, interview(s) and its/their release to the public.

Address of Teachers College: 525 West 120th Street, New York, NY10027