Office of Financial Aid
2017-2018 Grant-in-Aid Application
(For Doctoral Students Only)

Instructions: Grant in Aid is offered to assist doctoral student with tuition for dissertation advisement and/or Ph.D. defense fee during the last two semesters of registration prior to receiving their degree. Awards are made on the basis of both need and merit, with consideration given to students who have accumulated a significant amount of student loan debt.

Ed.D. students must be fully certified and have received the certification card from the Office of Doctoral Studies. Ph.D. student must have been awarded the Master of Philosophy degree to be considered for Grant in Aid.

If you are an international student, please complete the supplemental Grant in Aid Application, in addition.

Important: The Grant in Aid committee meets on the 3rd week of each month. Applications must be received by the Friday before by 5pm to be reviewed and considered for funding.
