Changes made to this year’s form

• Same questions as last year, but utilizing a computer form instead of a paper-intensive process
• Auto-population of fields
• Removed limit to the number of strengths that can be listed
• Reduced the minimum number of areas of development to one
• Rearranged the display so that the supervisor and employee’s input are side-by-side
• Allow for further customization to employee specifics
• Included an allowance in the system to update goals