Peace Education Concentration Requirements for MA students
2005-2006

For the concentration in Peace Education, you are required to take 12 units in the concentration area. Six units will be covered by the two required courses (ITSF 4613 & ITSF 4614), and the additional six units can be tailored to each student’s particular interests in the field of peace education. Below you will find a list of courses that can count towards your peace education requirement. A maximum of three units can be taken as independent study or as an internship to be counted towards the peace education requirement.

Two courses are required for the concentration in Peace Education:
- Fundamentals of Peace Education (ITSF 4613, Fall)
- UN as Peace Educator (ITSF 4614, Spring)

An additional six units can be taken throughout the department*. Some recommended courses are the following.

Fall 2005
- Gender, Education & Development (ITSF 4094-06)
- Human & Social Dimensions of Peace (ITSF 4603)
- Educational Planning: Peacemaking/Conflict (ITSF 4094-17)
- Educational Planning: Peacemaking/Conflict (ITSF 4094-18)
- Educational Planning: Peacemaking/Conflict (ITSF 4094-19)

Spring 2006
- Educational Planning: Human Rights (ITSF 4094-02)
- Politics and Education in Emergencies: Post-Conflict (ITSF 4094-05)
- Education for Global Security (ITSF 4611)
- Education & the Development of Nations: International Organizations (ITSF 5691)
- Educational Planning: Theory & Practice of Education in Emergencies (ITSF 4094-08)
- Race, Class & Schooling (ITSF 5007)

For courses not listed here, documentation that the course covers peace and human rights topics must be provided in order for the course to be counted towards your concentration in peace education.

* Additionally, any course in Conflict Resolution offered at Teachers College or Columbia University (graduate level) can count towards your concentration in peace education.

For further questions, please do not hesitate to contact Monisha Bajaj at bajaj@tc.edu or 212.678.3194.