Important Notices!

Checking out in May?

All non-graduating residents are required to vacate by Wednesday, May 10 at 11 am

All graduating residents are required to vacate by Friday, May 19 at 11 am

If you have submitted a Vacate Notification Form to vacate in May, you should have heard from your Area Director and CA regarding the process. If you have not heard from your Area Director, please call into your Area Office to check in about your status.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for residing in Teachers College housing and to remind you of some important notices.

- You can utilize a standard or express vacate option. Please ensure that you notify your CA of your intention for vacating. Check your AD notice for details.
- Please refer to pages 24-26 of your Guide to Campus Living for specific procedures on how you should leave your unit to facilitate check-out.
- The most common charges that we have billed residents for in the past include: Cleaning, Defrosting refrigerator, Painting, Item removal.
- Please ensure that you leave your unit in good condition, remove all your personal items and check with your CA/Area Office in advance if you have questions or concerns.

Mail Forwarding Information: All residents should provide the Registrar with a forwarding address in order to avoid delay in the mailing of their housing security deposit. Whittier and 517 residents should also provide the Residential Mailroom with a forwarding address by submitting a Residential Mail Forwarding Form at OHRL or at the Residential Mailroom. Mail will be forwarded for 1 month after departure. Bancroft, Grant, and Sarasota residents should provide the United States Post Office with a forwarding address for mail to be forwarded (www.usps.gov).

We wish you all the best in your future endeavors.

A special congratulations to our graduating residents!

---

Important May Dates

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date</th>
<th>Event Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Tuesday, May 9, 2006</td>
<td>End of Spring Term 2006!</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wednesday, May 10, 2006</td>
<td>Termination of occupancy in residence halls Spring students not remaining for Summer Session A. May 19th for graduating students remaining for Commencement.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Friday, May 12, 2006</td>
<td>Last day to deposit Ph.D. dissertation with the Office of Doctoral Studies and the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences for the award of the May degree.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tuesday, May 16, 2006</td>
<td>Teachers College Master degrees Convocations.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Wednesday, May 17, 2006</td>
<td>Conferring of degrees, 10:30am. Teachers College Doctoral degrees Convocation, 2:30pm.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Do you have visitors coming to town?

Here's a list of some of NYC's biggest attractions!

Apollo Theater, 253 W 125th St, New York, NY. Where show time is always big time.

Brooklyn Bridge, Manhattan side: Park Row, near Municipal Building. Brooklyn side: Cadman Plaza, New York, NY. Biking, blading or walking, the best way to appreciate the beauty of Manhattan and one outer borough is somewhere in between.

Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine, 1047 Amsterdam Ave, New York, NY
An awe-inspiring landmark that's been a magnificent work in progress since 1892.

Central Park, 59th St to 110th St, New York, NY.
The most famous park in NYC provides 843 acres of greensward in the center of Manhattan.

Chrysler Building, 405 Lexington Ave, New York, NY.
This Jazz Age landmark may not be the tallest in Gotham, but it's arguably the most stunning.

City Hall, Broadway, New York, NY
A center of New York City government that has seen the progression of American history since 1812.

Congregation Emanu-El of the City of New York, 1 E 65th St, New York, NY
Gorgeous stained-glass windows by Tiffany and renowned Philadelphia craftsman Nicola D'Ascenzo give St. Patrick's Cathedral a solid run for the money.

Ellis Island Immigration Museum, Ellis Island, New York, NY
3 floors of thoughtfully-curated exhibits present an awe-inspiring look at America's immigrant past.

Empire State Building, 350 5th Ave, New York, NY
Beyond the throngs of tourists is one of this hemisphere's most magnificent vistas.

Federal Hall National Memorial, 26 Wall St, New York, NY
A national memorial that was formerly City Hall and the first capital building.

Federal Reserve Bank of New York, 33 Liberty St, New York, NY
This historic municipal headquarters is also a piece of attractive architecture.

Flatiron Building, 5th Ave, New York, NY.

Fraunces Tavern Museum, 54 Pearl St, New York, NY. George Washington slept--really.

General Grant National Memorial (Grant's Tomb) 122nd St and Riverside Dr, New York, NY

Gracie Mansion, Carl Schurtz Park Entrance, New York, NY
New York's mayoral residence may be a Federal mansion, but it's a municipal treasure.

Lower East Side Tenement Museum, 97 Orchard Street, New York City, NY
Orchard Street's museum documents everyday family lives and the broader history of immigration.

Merchant's House Museum, 29 E 4th St, New York, NY.
A well-preserved, gilded-age, 7 floor home, formerly inhabited by the tradesman Seabury Tredwell.

Radio City Music Hall, 1260 6th Ave, New York, NY. One of the country's opulent theaters, it's a symbol of show-biz glamour.

Seagram Building, 375 Park Ave, New York, NY
"Less is more" was the maxim of architect Ludwig Mies van der Rohe, and this modernist gem epitomizes that philosophy.

Statue of Liberty, Battery Park and Liberty State Park, New York, NY America's tallest greeting party welcomes you into her arms.
St Patrick’s Cathedral, Fifth Ave, New York, NY. The largest Catholic cathedral in the U.S., built in the French Gothic style.

The Cloisters, Fort Tryon Park, New York, NY. Step back through time to medieval Europe in this Bronx haven.

Theodore Roosevelt Birthplace, 28 E 20th St, New York, NY.

Times Square, Broadway at 7th Ave, New York, NY
This 24-hour circus is the public face of New York and home to many Broadway productions.

Trinity Church, 74 Trinity Pl, New York, NY. One of the oldest churches in New York City.

Trump International Hotel and Towers – Hotel, 1 Central Park W, New York, NY.

United Nations, 1st Ave, New York, NY. The world’s government headquarters is an inspiring reminder that the earth is a great melting pot.

Vietnam Veterans Plaza, Water St, New York, NY
A monument that articulates the fears of soldiers at war, and the dark doubts that often plagued those returning home.

Washington Square Park, W 4th St and Waverly Pl, New York, NY
A dramatic arch marks the entrance to this beloved symbol of Greenwich Village, old and new.

Woolworth Building, 233 Broadway, New York, NY
Once the tallest building in New York City, it is still an architectural and historical marvel.

Yankee Stadium, 161st St and River prAve, Bronx, NY. The house that Ruth built is still standing proud!

A message from the Office of Development

NEED SUMMER CASH?

NETWORKING OPPORTUNITY.....

COME AND JOIN US FOR A FUN FILLED DAY AS YOU MAKE PHONE CALLS TO ALUMNI ASKING THEM TO MAKE A GIFT TO THE TC FUND.

THE PAY RATE WILL BE $10 PER HOUR. DINNER AND GIFT CERTIFICATE PRIZES WILL BE PROVIDED!

DATES: THURSDAY, JUNE 1, MONDAY, JUNE 5 FROM 5:30-9 PM SATURDAY, JUNE 3 FROM 9:30 AM-1 PM

OUR FULL TRAINING WILL HELP DEVELOP VALUABLE COMMUNICATION SKILLS THAT WILL BENEFIT YOU DURING YOUR EDUCATION AT TC AND IN YOUR FUTURE CAREER. TO SIGN UP PLEASE CONTACT KIM AT CHAY@TC.EDU 212-678-4067.

Neighborhood Restaurant Highlight

Looking for a casual place to grab a delicious lunch at a great price? Than head to TOAST on Broadway between La Salle St. and Tiemann Place (near 121st Street). Toast offers a wide variety of delicious sandwiches and fresh salads that won’t break the bank. Their burgers are some of the best in town and the house fries with fired up chipotle ketchup are worth the trip alone. We recommend their Danish Burger for you blue cheese lovers out there. They also offer a great selection of beers on tap with excellent happy hour specials. So grab some pals and head to Toast for delicious food and a great time. 212-662-1144
NYC HAPPENINGS

Fleet Week May 24 - May 30, 2006 Since 1984, New York City has held Fleet Week to honor the U.S. Navy and Marine Corps. The week features extensive military demonstrations, as well as the opportunity for the public to tour some of the visiting ships. The Memorial Day commemoration is a highlight of the week's festivities, featuring the singing of Taps and a military aircraft fly over in honor of those who lost their lives in service to the United States. Visit www.fleetweek.navy.mil/ for a full schedule of events.

Ninth Avenue International Food Festival

May 20 - May 21, 2006 The Ninth Avenue International Food Festival is not just about food, but about fun. The variety of foods it has to offer is incredible and delicious. More than a million hungry people descend on the Hell's Kitchen neighborhood for two days each May to sample the delights offered at one of New York's finest street fairs. Ninth Avenue's restaurants and food stores cover a vast range of ethnic cuisines, which have made it the city's most famed food district. The month of May is approaching fast so liven up your taste buds and head to 9th Avenue between 37th and 57th Streets from 9am to 7pm to sample the delicious cuisine.