Career Mentoring 212-678-3140, careerservices@tc.edu, www.tc.edu/careerservices
• Post Jobs/Internships to TC Students & Alumni.
  Hire interns and full-time employees through a job postings and recruiting program.
• Alumni Mentoring & Career Networking Program.
  Give something back to TC by helping students make smooth transitions into the workplace and supporting their networking skills as an Alumni partner, contact and/or mentor. Attend networking nights as a partner, interact with students by email or phone as a contact, or work closely with students by becoming a mentor.
ALUMNI ASSOCIATION There are over 80,000 Teachers College alumni worldwide. As a graduate, you are automatically enrolled in the Alumni Association, free of charge, and you are eligible for numerous benefits and services. The association is a non-dues-paying body and its members include all TC graduates.

ALUMNI COUNCIL A board of 35 Alumni Association members is elected to serve two three-year terms on the Alumni Council. The council represents the diverse interests and needs of the graduates and other attendees of the college.

ALUMNI CLUBS Graduates are encouraged to become involved in alumni activities around the world. Clubs are active in areas where there are major concentrations of TC alumni, including Arizona, Connecticut, London, Long Island, Los Angeles, New York City, Northern New Jersey, San Francisco, South Florida, Washington, DC, and Westchester County.

INTERNATIONAL ALUMNI NETWORK In 2000, the Alumni Council created the International Alumni Network (IAN) as a way to make TC a more international community. IAN is comprised of representatives from all the countries where TC alumni live, providing a much-needed link between our international alumni and the College.

CLASS NOTES Career updates from our alumni are posted on the Alumni Services Web site and appear in TC Today, the college’s bi-annual magazine.

THE COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY CLUB Celebrate and interact with fellow Columbians as a member of the Columbia University Club of New York (CUONY) located at 15 West 43rd Street in the heart of midtown Manhattan. CUONY offers membership to alumni from all divisions of Columbia University and maintains a busy calendar of social activities. For more information, please visit their Web site at www.columbiaclub.org or call 212-719-0380 to set up a tour.

THE GOTTESMAN LIBRARIES & OTHER COLUMBIA LIBRARIES Enjoy free access to all Morningside Campus libraries for reading and research (not including online resources) with your TC Alumni Id Card. Borrowing privileges are available for a small fee.

ALUMNI ID CARD Needed to access the resources at TC or Columbia University, the TC Alumni Id Card can be picked up at 193 Grace Dodge Hall at Teachers College, Monday to Friday from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
