Officer Safety through Conflict Management

Thursday - July 21, 2016

Please join the Spence School, Collegiate School, Buckley School, Browning School, and Teachers College, for the second of two in-service training sessions presented as a Summer Series. There is no cost to participants.

Guest Lecturers:

Professor Dino Doria
Toronto Police Services Intelligence Unit – retired

International Training Consultant
Extremism and Anti-Terrorism

Subject Matter Expert – Conflict Management – Personal and Professional

Presented at Teachers College at Columbia University
525 West 120th Street, Thompson Hall Room 136.

Please present an institutional employment ID and/or a State issued Driver’s License to obtain a Visitor Pass at the Public Safety Desk. Please display the Visitor Pass on your outermost garment during your stay on campus.

To register please phone the TC Office of Public Safety at 212.678.3111
email the TC Office of Public Safety at Officeofpublicsafety@tc.columbia.edu
Dino Doria
International Expert on Extremism and Anti-Terrorism

Dino Doria brings a wide range of experiences – having served in the Canadian Military in the Medical Corps and the Toronto Police Service where he earned 40 years of police, and security related experience in both proactive and investigative work. During his career in law enforcement he has worked with national and international law enforcement agencies, local and state governments, schools and diverse communities in promoting pro-active security measures adapt to their localities.

He was involved in dignitary protection details for heads of state in Canada, Europe, United States, South East Asia, State of Brunei, and North Africa. Dino is an international guest lecturer on extremism and anti-terrorism. He was also an adjunct professor with California State University, San Bernardino, CA.

In 2003, he travelled to St. Petersburg, Russia with a delegation of San Francisco police department where he trained Russian police officers on special investigations and practical policing programs. Dino holds a Psychology degree from the University of Southern California and a Master’s of Science in Criminal Justice & Administration degree from Niagara University, New York.

Since 1995, Doria has also delivered "train the trainer" seminars for US FLETC - State, Local and International Law Enforcement Agencies. He is a curriculum advisor and S.T.A.R. instructor for the U.S Department of Homeland Security, Federal Law Enforcement Center (FLETC).

In 2003 Dino implemented, coordinated, and taught as full time faculty member in the Police Foundations Program at Centennial College, Scarborough Ontario, Canada. In 2006, Dino was assigned a full time faculty position at the University of Guelph-Humber Justice Studies Program. In 2009 he became the Justice Studies Program Head for the University of Guelph-Humber where he instructed numerous criminal justice courses. One of these course was conflict management on a personal and professional basis. Dino has recently retired from teaching at the University of Guelph-Humber and is preparing for the next chapter in his life in ministering to Law Enforcement professionals.

AGENDA

Thursday, July 21, 2016

8:30 A.M.- 09:00 A.M. Registration and Breakfast
9:00 A.M. Introduction of Conflict theories
10:15 A.M. Coffee Network Break
10:30 A.M. Identifying Key Factors to Domestic Violence
1200 P.M.- 1:00 P.M. Lunch
1:00 P.M. Genocide Worse than War Documentary-Examining Dr. Zimbardo’s theories and how they apply to the Conflict Continuum
2:15 P.M. Coffee Network Break
2:30 P.M. Correlations of theories with practical applications
3:30 P.M. The Importance of Self-Care

Dino Doria
International Expert on Extremism and Anti-Terrorism
Officer Safety through Conflict Management

Sponsored by the Spence School, Collegiate School, Buckley School, Browning School and Teachers College

Thursday, July 21, 2016 8:30A.M.–4:30P.M.

(Registration begins at 8:30A.M.)

Teachers College at Columbia University

525 West 120th Street, Thompson Hall, Room 136

Name of registrant ________________________________

Rank/Title ____________________________________________

Employing Institution/Agency______________________________

Registration sponsored by employer______ or self-registration_____ (please check one)

No. of years of public/safety/security experience_____________________

Contact phone number_____________________________________

Contact email ___________________________________________

Please present an institutional employment ID and/or a State issued Driver’s License to obtain a Visitor Pass at the Public Safety Desk. Please display the Visitor Pass on your outer most garment during your stay on campus.

To submit registration form, please e-mail this completed registration to:

Officeofpublicsafety@tc.columbia.edu.

To register by phone, contact the TC Office of Public Safety at 212.678.3111.