2016 Recipients of the President's Medal for Distinguished Service

MASTERS I CEREMONY

Sandra Jackson-Dumont is the Frederick P. and Sandra P. Rose Chairman of Education at the Metropolitan Museum of Art—the largest museum in the western hemisphere. Jackson-Dumont is responsible for the vision and management of education, public programs, the live arts/performance, audience development and academic programs. Her work encompasses a wide range of experiences designed for a diverse cross-section of audiences. She was formerly the Deputy Director for Education & Public Programs and Adjunct Curator of Modern & Contemporary Art at the Seattle Art Museum (SAM). She had strategic oversight of programming at SAM’s three sites—Seattle Art Museum, Seattle Asian Art Museum and Olympic Sculpture Park.

Prior to her appointment at SAM, Jackson-Dumont worked at the Studio Museum in Harlem and the Whitney Museum of American Art among other cultural organizations. Known for her ability to blur the lines between academia, popular culture and non-traditional art-going communities, Jackson-Dumont is invested in curating experiences that foster dynamic exchanges between art and artists, past and present, public and private, and people and places. She has organized numerous exhibitions, lectures, performances, symposia, education initiatives and has contributed essays to a host of publications and worked with numerous artists.

MASTERS II CEREMONY

Tom Frieden, M.D., M.P.H., is director of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). Since 2009, Dr. Frieden has intensified CDC's tireless work to protect the health, safety and security of the American people, including leading the agency’s response to the recent Ebola epidemic and other health emergencies. Under his direction, new CDC programs have focused on combating antibiotic resistance, preventing foodborne and healthcare-associated infections, helping people quit smoking, addressing the prescription drug overdose epidemic and advancing global health security worldwide. He previously led New York City's program that cut multidrug-resistant tuberculosis by 90 percent, and helped India prevent more than 3 million tuberculosis deaths. As New York City’s health commissioner from 2002 to 2009, he helped reduce teen smoking by half and adult smoking by one-third. Frieden received his medical and master’s of public health degrees from Columbia University. He completed infectious disease training at Yale University.

MASTERS III CEREMONY

Kris D. Gutiérrez is Professor of Language, Literacy & Culture at the University of California, Berkeley, Graduate School of Education. Kris was most recently a professor of Learning Sciences/Literacy and the Inaugural Provost’s Chair at the University of Colorado, Boulder and Professor Emerita of Social Research Methodology at GSE&IS at UCLA. Professor Gutiérrez is a national leader in education, with an emphasis in literacy, learning sciences, and interpretive and design-based approaches to inquiry. Gutiérrez is a member of the National Academy of Education and is the past President of the American Educational Research Association and the National Conference on Research on Language and Literacy.

Gutiérrez was appointed by President Obama and confirmed by the U.S. Senate as a member of the National Board for the Institute of Education Sciences where she served as Vice Chair. Her research examines learning in designed learning environments, with attention to students from non-dominant communities and English Learners. Her work on Third Spaces examines the affordances of hybrid and syncretic approaches to literacy, new media literacies, and STEM learning and the re-mediation of functional systems of learning. Her work in social design experiments seeks to leverage students’ everyday concepts and practices to ratchet up expansive forms of learning.

DOCTORAL HOODING CEREMONY

Susan T. Fiske is Eugene Higgins Professor of Psychology and Public Affairs at Princeton University. She investigates cognitive stereotypes and emotional prejudices, culturally, interpersonally, and neuro-scientifically, with policy implications. Her books include The HUMAN Brand: How We Relate to People, Products, and Companies (with Chris Malone, 2013); Envy Up, Scorn Down: How Status Divides Us (2011); and Social Cognition (with Shelley Taylor, 2013, 4/e). She edits Annual Review of Psychology, PNAS, and Policy Insights from Behavioral and Brain Sciences, is past President of the Federation of Associations in Behavioral and Brain Sciences, and was elected to the National Academy of Sciences, the American Philosophical Society and the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. Research requires a village, and her graduate students conspired for her to win Princeton’s Graduate Mentoring Award.

Thank you to all who support scholarships and fellowships at TC.
CONGRATULATIONS, 2016 GRADUATES!

As President of the Teachers College Alumni Association, it is with great pleasure that I welcome you into our distinguished ranks as Teachers College alumni. You are joining a network of some 90,000 professionals—from all walks of life and at all stages of careers—who have made and continue to make an indelible mark on the world. Alumni have done so because of their experience, leadership and tenacity. They also have done so with the support of the people around them like the family, friends, faculty, administrators, trustees, benefactors and fellow alumni who’ve been a part of your journey.

Your time at TC may have been similar to mine, with moments of insight, laughter and even bewilderment. You have developed personal and professional friendships that will stand you in good stead for years to come, and I can assure you that your continued connection to TC will provide support for you throughout your life.

This is an exciting time to join the alumni network, as we are in the midst of an historic campaign—Where the Future Comes First—which allows us to strengthen our capacity to create the next chapter in our distinctive legacy of firsts! I invite you, the newest members of the Alumni Association, to help us in achieving our non-financial goal of increasing alumni engagement by simply participating.

Join the thousands of alumni who participate each year in an array of happenings, such as Academic Festival and Global TC Day, at the College, around NYC and in regions across the globe. We trust you will get involved as an alumnus/a, whether locally or remotely, through the array of social, networking and career-focused activities available. Stay connected on social media, and keep your contact information current at tc.edu/alumni to receive News from the College and to learn about upcoming networking and educational opportunities.

You are destined to enhance the TC legacy through your leadership in your field. We look forward to celebrating your achievements, being a part of your future endeavors and sharing news of your success among our alumni community.

Always know that you have a home and rich community at TC to support you. On behalf of all Teachers College alumni, I congratulate you!

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Putman, Ed.D. 2011
