Student Agreements

Teachers College Online Registration Agreement

1. In using the online registration function provided through the Student Information System, I understand that educational and financial impact upon my record and account.
2. I AGREE TO TAKE FULL RESPONSIBILITY for any course registrations, course additions, dropouts, and withdrawals, academic policies and financial policies of Teachers College, including, but not limited to, academic term(s) for which I am registering or making changes. I hereby agree to be responsible for reductions of tuition and fees, refunds, dropping and adding courses and withdrawals. I understand that failure to settle all account balances can result in the assessment of interest and penalty fees. I understand that non-payment may result in late payment charges and interest. I agree to pay Teachers College fees and costs for which I am responsible. I understand that Teachers College reserves the right to use its facilities and suspension or dismissal.

Teachers College Student Conduct Policy

Teachers College (TC or the College) expects students to observe traditional norms which disrupt the regular and essential operations of the College or Columbia University. Members of the College community may charge students with violating these norms.

When students are accused of gender-based misconduct including but not limited to, sexual harassment, stalking, or sexual violence, the College will conduct a prompt and fair investigation and disciplinary process.

Nothing in these standards of conduct shall replace professional codes of ethics but shall be in addition to them. Teachers College reserves the right to use its facilities and suspension or dismissal.

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY RULES OF CONDUCT

Columbia University has separate Rules of University Conduct for students who are members of the College community but not students and for students who are members of the College community but also students of other institutions within the University. The College will conduct a prompt and fair investigation and disciplinary process for any violation of these rules.
