The 7th Annual Morton Deutsch Awards for Distinguished Contributions to Social Justice

Ceremony Followed by Reception

Please Join Us in Honoring
Dr. Ervin Staub
7th Annual Morton Deutsch Scholar-Practitioner Awardee

“Resisting evil, creating goodness: The prevention of mass violence, reconciliation, and the development of inclusive caring and active bystandership”

Ervin Staub is Founding Director of the Psychology of Peace and Violence Doctoral Program at the University of Massachusetts. His latest book is Overcoming Evil: Genocide, Violent Conflict and Terrorism (2011). He will talk about humanizing the “other,” creating constructive ideologies, promoting active bystandership by individuals and nations to prevent the evolution of increasing hostility and violence, and constructive leadership. He will discuss interventions in Rwanda and elsewhere to help people heal from past violence and reconcile, and research evaluating their effects. He will talk about rescuers, resisting evil, and ways to develop inclusive caring and moral courage.

Thursday, April 14th, 2011
5 – 7 pm
Grace Dodge Hall, Room 179
Teachers College
Columbia University

Please RSVP to dewolfe@tc.edu or 212.678.3402

Winners of the 2011 Deutsch Graduate Student Social Justice Award will discuss their papers:

Schooling and the Reproduction of Violent Masculinities

Shenila S. Khoja-Moolji, Teachers College

Organizational Champions and their “Magic Secrets”: Transforming Implicit Conflict Mitigation Strategies

Kimberly Rogers, Columbia University