Tuesday, April 4th

Crossing Borders Film and Discussion (Refreshments will be served)

12:00 pm – 1:30 pm, 138 Horace Mann

Co-Sponsored by: Office of International Affairs, and Office of Diversity and Community Affairs

Crossing Borders Education creates resources that connect individuals from cultures and parts of the world to promote global understanding. Differences are highlighted and are a focal point to not only bring individuals together but to also create meaningful dialogue on a number of important issues that affect everyone. We welcome the TC community to learn more about and to engage in cross-cultural interactions through film!

International Culture Night

6:30-8:00 pm, Everett Lounge

Come and experience different cultures as students display pieces of art from their home countries! Art demonstrations, henna, origami, Chinese medicine, trivia and more!

Wednesday, April 5th

Poetry Writing and Open Mic.

6:00 pm – 8:00 pm, 285 GDH

Co-Sponsored by: The Graduate Writing Center (Office of Student Affairs)

We are pleased to announce a Poetry Writing and Open Mic event celebrating TC's Week of the Student and National Poetry Month on Wednesday, April 5th from 6-8pm! Whether you're new to poetry writing, an experienced poet, or poetry lover looking for some guided activities to participate in, come learn about common poetic devices, write to some short prompts, and discuss these together from 6-7pm. Then take 5 minutes to share your poetry, a poem by your favorite poet, or even just share what poetry means to you, in any language or style during the Open Mic till 8pm! A light dinner will be provided.
