PART I: INFORMATION REGARDING 24-MONTH STEM EXTENSION

While you are in the United States on F-1 Post-Completion Optional Practical Training, you still have F-1 status under U.S. immigration regulations. Please be aware that you are required to know and abide by the following guidelines:
RESTRICTIONS ON ACCEPTABLE EMPLOYMENT STEM OPT permits you to accept professional training and employment in your field of study. Here are some additional guidelines on what types of employment you can engage in:

a. Your job responsibilities must be related to your field of study. Work not related to your field of study is not permitted while on OPT.

b. The employment must be paid and you must be a bona fide employee to qualify for STEM OPT. The terms and conditions of the practical training opportunity must be commensurate to similarly situated US workers in the area of employment.

c. A minimum of 20 hours per week of paid employment is required on STEM OPT.

d. During the STEM extension, you can only work for an employer that is enrolled in E-Verify and have an Employer Identification Number (EIN). The company must already be E-verified at the time of your application. E-Verify information can be found at http://www.uscis.gov/E-Verify

ONLY 150 DAYS OF UNEMPLOYMENT ALLOWED WHILE ON POST-COMPLETION OPT.
Under new OPT regulations, F-1 status is considered to be dependent on employment. Students may not be unemployed for more than an aggregate (i.e., total) of 150 days out of the total 36 months of OPT authorization. Any period of unemployment counts toward the 150 days allowed. You must be working at least 20 hours per week to be considered employed.

TWO LIFE-TIME STEM OPT EXTENSIONS
Under new regulations, F-1 students are eligible to apply for two STEM extensions IF:

a. Student has obtained a second STEM qualifying degree from a US higher institution at a higher degree level

AND

b. the student is currently approved for an initial 12 months of OPT for the higher degree level

TRAVEL WHILE ON OPT
Although you may continue to work while the OPT extension application is pending, you may encounter complication returning to the US after a trip abroad after the first EAD has expired and before you receive the EAD for the 24-month extension.
To avoid any complications, you should have the following with you when you re-enter the U.S.:

1. Your STEM- Extension OPT I-20 (with a travel signature from the OIS no more than 6 months old at re-entry)
2. A passport valid for 6 months into the future
3. A valid F-1 visa (unless you are a Canadian citizen)
4. A valid EAD card (12-month EAD and/or the 24-month OPT EAD)
5. Employment letter
   If you are traveling to apply for a new F-1 visa, be sure to allow enough time for the visa process. For additional travel information, please go to the OIS website travel section.

HEALTH INSURANCE
While not required under F-1 regulations, it is important that you maintain health insurance coverage while on OPT. Employers may provide health insurance coverage but are not obligated to do so. Please check with your prospective employer about medical insurance benefits or contact OIS for a list of insurance companies.
TAXES In general, F-1 students on OPT should not be subject to Social Security or Medicare taxes, categorized as “FICA” taxes. Please refer your employer to the Social Security provisions as described in Internal Revenue Service Publication 519 (download a copy at http://www.irs.gov). Additional tax exemption may be available depending upon tax treaty provisions between the U.S. and your home country. Refer to the tax treaty provisions for students from your country (if applicable), as described in IRS Publication 901.
