

CONGRATULATIONS!

TCP SUMMER 2018

The whole experience was intense yet rewarding. I especially loved the on-site portion because of all the lovely teachers, faculty, and classmates. -Tianyu Zhang

Being able to study and teach in a city so diverse like NYC was definitely a life-changing experience.

It didn't just broaden my mind to different perspectives, but also - and thanks to the lessons received at TC, helped me feel prepared to become a better teacher for globalized world like this.

TCP has given me valuable tools that are directly applicable to teaching in the classroom.

It was incredible to be in an environment that was intellectually challenging while collaborating with my cohort.

Most of my experiences in professional development has been trial and error, with varying results.

I value the research-based approaches that I learned and was given the opportunity to implement while being observed.

– Hassan Khaja

It was a bit challenging but it will help my teaching after going back home.

- Eunyoung Park

Although it is difficult to truly put everything we've learned into practice in these short weeks, I feel I am much more prepared to start working as an ESL teacher in the "real world." - Lee Micklin

It has been eye-opening and truly an experience worthy of recommendation. The expertise and encouraging environment, as well as the development of profession from wherever each student stands in his or her career is unparalleled due to the eclectic backdrop of NYC.

A photograph showing a group of people, mostly young adults, sitting on the floor in a circle. Their hands are stacked on top of each other in the center, a common gesture for team building or solidarity. The people are wearing casual clothing like t-shirts and jeans. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.

My TCP experience has encouraged me to go beyond my comfort zone and embrace new ideologies, new friends, and new experiences. I have gained confidence and a new understanding of the teacher I hope to become. I am grateful for all of the teachers and mentors who have become my role models.

- Brittany Gross

Demanding and worthwhile. Excellent survey of both theory and practice.

- Howard Buford

A photograph of two young women sitting at a desk, looking down at papers. The woman on the left is wearing a dark jacket over a patterned top and holding a yellow pencil. The woman on the right is wearing a blue t-shirt. They appear to be in a classroom or study area, with a wooden door visible in the background. The image has a white border.

TCP has been a rewarding, inspiring experience. I had no classroom experience before the program but now I feel confident and prepared to work as a classroom ESL teacher.
