“This program has given me more than I could have hoped for. From the scholarly exploration of sociolinguistics to the practical experience of teaching a real class, each course was both engaging and enlightening. I feel prepared to use the skills I've gained from the TESOL Certificate courses in real classrooms.” - Tahmena Afrooz

The screenshot shows a Google Slides presentation titled "Activity: Write a Letter Home". The slide content includes the following:

Activity: Write a Letter Home

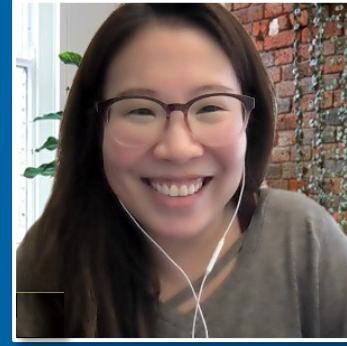

Directions:

You are going to write a letter home to your families. In your letter you need to:

1. Describe the neighborhood of your home in the United States
2. Tell how many bedrooms your current home has
3. Tell how many bathrooms your current home has
4. Is your home dark or bright?
5. If you like or dislike your home and why
6. Give two statements about each feature, 8-10 sentences total

On the right side of the slide, there is a vertical video call window showing five participants. The text "Select an object to" is partially visible next to the video call window.

“The faculty was incredible. You can tell how much they love what they do and their enthusiasm was contagious. And so were my fellow classmates, I am so grateful for their inspiration and the high bar that they set in a friendly non-competitive way.”

“My TCP experience was humbling. I learned so much from my fellow co-teachers which I will take with me for years to come.”

Thank you all for being part of the TCP Team!
We wish each of you the best in your future academic and professional endeavors!
