

You need to describe the picture before starting

This is one of the worst pictures I have ever taken in my life because I have the cheesiest smile and I look so goofy. This was taken about three years ago and I look so young and I am so not here what you mean?

Confusing

in the mood to take a picture and that is exactly why I hate this picture. Every time I am in the mood to take a picture I come out looking ~~stupid~~ stupid. I look like a baseball fanatic in my baseball uniform for my league picture day. I was so tired that day because I had went to sleep very late the day before. ~~the time I took the picture was at~~ ^{in the morning} about nine o'clock and I was so happy that I had a game right after the picture is taken so I was so hyper and so excited.

I was so happy ~~that~~ I felt I was ^{going to} ~~gonna~~ win the game and I wish that I could take the picture after I lost because then I wasn't in the mood to take a picture. There is the field behind me ~~in the picture~~ where it was so easy to hit a home run because the gate was so close to second base. ~~In real life the pitchers mound would be there.~~ My coach is behind me walking away because I was the last one in line and he thought that everyone had gone but I ^{just made it} ~~made it just in time~~ to ^{in time} ~~be on time~~ for my game because my coach had forgotten all about me. I was in the majors division and they gave me one of those small bats that you get in the stadium for like fifteen dollars that is only a souvenir, I look like such a loser in that picture because I have a small bat and the cheesiest smile. In my opinion I was a good all around player but I don't think my coach thought I was that important if he left me by myself at the picture place. I think we could've won that game but I think that me having such a good feeling about winning ruined it for me and all of my team mates.

This is funny!
I want to see the pic! great details.
* You need to work on getting rid of run-ons!
