

Name:
Title of Assignm

homework

3/22/07

Cultural Aspects (language, customs, dress, art, etc.)	Religious Aspects (having to do with belief and practices in regards to God/Allah)	Political Aspects (having to do with the principles and policies of those who govern a family, community or country)
- Wore certain shoes such as loafers, the Lyanna put hers in the shop to get new soles. - Omer wore a thick white, long sleeved T-shirt with three buttons at the throat, blue jeans, and purple high top less tennis shoes (very common in america also). - Inside the massive museum, Lyanna and Omer stared happily at giant paintings, sculptures, and ancient lamps dug out of caves.	- A lot of the people a jewish - He read the bible and pieces a quote for the bible a shades it with the family.	- In Jerusalem people didn't choose to ever mention thanksgiving. - Lyanna's mother mentions that Jerusalem is a very conservative city and that a person get in trouble and possibly killed just for talking to a woman on the street.

Below record three questions for your group's next discussion:

1. Why didn't Lyanna consider her so called "appointment" with Omer a date?
2. Why wasn't Lyanna worried about the dangers of the laws in Jerusalem?
3. Do you think that Lyanna is going through the same problem as she did in the United States in Jerusalem?