II. Discussion Notes

Take notes in the space below on the most important points of your discussion. Include any passages you discussed, anything you debated, had questions about, or simply found interesting or important. If someone in your group says something particularly insightful, give that person credit by jotting his/her name next to the comment.

Omar is a arabic name so its wierd to the girl that is Jewish.

He is hiding something

- he is hiding something and she will find out later in the book.

- she doesn't care about rules, she just cares about love.

- she wants to be with omer.

- when they went on a date they liked each other and didn't care about rules.

- she described him in full detail.

- his name isn't Omar and isn't and it isn't an arabic name.

omer wants to be in a actor

- omer could be an old friend of the family.

- why would he try to get with her if she's family or a family friend?

- I think their relationship won't work out.
