Happy New Year Everyone!

I hope you are having a wonderful and relaxing winter break. We will be planning to host 2 or 3 internal networking events in the spring to give TC faculty an opportunity to explore similar research interests and potential collaborations. I'll be reaching out to you soon to seek out your ideas and interest in participating in this series.

In addition, we're offering internal funds to support new and current collaborations. For more information, please see the internal funding opportunities section below or visit the Research@TC website.

Sincerely,

Carol Research@TC website
