

Storytelling for Sustainability:

A Conversation on Driving Climate Activism and Education through Story

Oren Pizmony-Levy

Jeff Leinaweaver

Harriet Shugarman

Taylor Morton

Andrea Kennedy

SPEAKERS

Oren Pizmony-Levy, Associate Professor & Program Director, Center for Sustainable Futures, Teachers College, Columbia University

Harriet Shugarman, Founder, ClimateMama.com & Author, How to Talk to Your Kids About Climate Change

Tim Guinee, Actor and Climate Reality Leader and Chair

Taylor Morton, Director of Environmental Health and Education, We Act

Jeff Leinaweaver, Storyteller, Sustainability Strategist and Author, Storytelling for Sustainability: Deepening the Case for Change

Andrea Kennedy, Sustainability Professor, LIM College

An interactive virtual panel conversation to discuss and share strategies, practices, and methods for educators, and all practitioners, to use, infuse and educate to become better storytellers for driving change.

Thursday
MAY 6, 2021
2:00 to 3:00pm EST

Zankel Fellowship for Climate Change Education event
Teachers College, Columbia University

REGISTER NOW